

Welcome Aboard Message from the MAG-39 Family Readiness Officer

On behalf of the Commanding Officer, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Marine Aircraft Group 39. My name is Lelia Brady, and I am the MAG-39 Family Readiness Officer. I am here to assist you and your family in all areas of morale and readiness while in CONUS and deployed.

Enclosed is a Welcome Aboard Package for Camp Pendleton, CA. It provides valuable information that will assist you during your transition. Additionally, if you wish to have a sponsor help you during your PSC move, please let me know.

Included in the package is a separate Welcome Aboard Package for MAG-39 Headquarters Squadron. This package must be completed within 10 business days of checking into the Command. The package does contain numerous forms that require sensitive information on you and your family. This information is requested to assist the Commanding Officer in his quest for family readiness. Please be assured that all personal information will be kept in the strictest confidentiality.

If you have received this letter in the mail with your welcome aboard package, feel free to visit the MAG-39 website at <http://www.3maw.usmc.mil/mag39/default.asp>. The site contains additional resources and links associated with Camp Pendleton, CA. If you are reading this message from the MAG-39 website, please contact me to request a hard copy or electronic version of the Welcome Aboard Package for the base.

On that note, I will say farewell. Best wishes with your move, and I look forward to your arrival.

Lelia A. Brady
