Marine Corps Air Station Yuma

Welcome Aboard Packet

On behalf of the Information & Referral Program we would like to welcome you to Marine Corps Air Station Yuma. We believe that you will find your assignment here to be a rewarding and enjoyable experience. The MCAS Yuma Information & Referral Office is here to assist you in transitioning to the local area by providing an Electronic Welcome Aboard Packet with information pertaining to the base and the city of Yuma.

The Information & Referral Office would like to recommend that you visit your current station's I&R office and sign up for their Plan Your Move Seminar. This seminar is set up to relieve the stresses that come with relocating by helping you to prepare for your impending move. Your current I&R office should be able to provide you with information regarding MCAS Yuma as well. When you arrive at MCAS Yuma, it is required for all new incoming service members and encouraged for spouses to attend one of the Welcome Aboard Briefs, which are held 3rd Wednesday of the month from 0800-1030 at the Sonoran Pueblo Gonzalez Room.

The I&R Office hopes that the information and website links provided are helpful in your transition to Yuma. If you would like further assistance please email susan.clarke@usmc-mccs.org.

Information about Marine Corps Air Station Yuma

Established in 1959, Marine Corps Air Station Yuma is one of the Corps' premier aviation training bases. With access to 2.8 million acres of bombing and aviation training ranges and ideal flying weather, MCAS Yuma supports 80 percent of the Corps' air-to-ground aviation training. Each year, the air station hosts approximately 70 aviation units, bringing an average of 600 aircraft and 14,000 personnel for ongoing training exercises that take place.

Approximately 6900 Marines and sailors are aboard MCAS Yuma on any given day. There are also several hundred permanent civilian employees and contractors employed at MCAS. With approximately 200,000 airfield operations annually, it is the most active air station in the Marine Corps and the sixth most active in the Navy Department. MCAS Yuma is currently home to a number of tenant commands including Marine Aviation Weapons and Tactics Squadron-1 (MAWTS-1), Marine Aircraft Group-13 (MAG-13), Marine Wing Support Squadron-371 (MWSS-371), Marine Fighter Training Squadron-401 (VMFT-401), Marine Fighter Attack Squadron-121 (VMFA-121), Marine Air Control Squadron-1 (MACS-1), Combat Logistics Company-16 (CLC-16), and Marine Attack Squadrons 211, 214, 311 and VMX 1, and VMU-1.

Checking In

Business hours: Monday through Friday, 0800-1630: Building 408.

To check in, please coordinate with the VMU-1 Adjutant, 2ndLt Robertson, and/or your sponsor from your department to find building 408 and come to the S-1. You will need an escort to enter building 408.

Adjutant comm: 928-269-0071.

Weekends, after hours, and Holidays:

If you must check in after hours, please contact the Squadron Duty Officer (SDO). If the Squadron Duty Officer is unavailable, please contact the Marine Aircraft Group 13 Duty Clerk (GDC) or Group Duty Officer (GDO) for help checking in.

SDO comm: 928-247-0728

GDC comm: 928-269-3386

GDO comm: 928-269-2124.

Building 408 is located on the corner of Halstead and Aldrich streets. You can park under the covered parking to the south of the building or the lot behind the softball field to the east of the building, so long as the spot is unmarked. The adjutant or the SDO can provide more in depth instructions if necessary.

Information about Yuma

Yuma is in the Sonoran Desert in Southwestern, Arizona. It is the third fastest growing city in the U.S and the third largest Metro area in Arizona. The year round population of Yuma is approximately 95,000. However, this number doubles to 190,000 during the winter months with the increase of winter visitors.

Yuma is located near the confluence of the Gila and Colorado Rivers in the southwest corner of the state, on the borders of California and Mexico. The Colorado River, which defines the border between Arizona and California, runs along the city's northern edge.

Yuma is nearly equidistant between Phoenix (178 miles) and San Diego (180 miles); also within a radius of just over 300 miles are Tucson, Las Vegas, Palm Springs and Los Angeles.

Fun Facts about Yuma

Yuma is recognized by the Guinness Book of World Records as the sunniest place on earth with 339 days of sunshine and less than 4 inches of rainfall annually.

Yuma (and all of Arizona) does not observe daylight savings time, except on the Navajo Reservation.

Yuma has 12 Golf Courses and 600 acres of parks and athletic fields.

MCAS Yuma and Yuma International Airport share a runway that is the third longest in the United States.

Most of the lettuce eaten in the United States from December through March is grown in Yuma, which has earned the city the title of "lettuce capital" of the United States.
